Dear Parent/Guardian

Re: Year 12 Study Leave

I am writing to you in view of the impending examination period as your child nears the end of Year 12. We would like to confirm that Friday 10th May will be the final day of normal timetabled study, after which the pupils will be free to revise at home and only attend school for their examinations. This is in-line with the arrangements that we have used in previous years and commensurate with the expected level of independent study for A-Level students.

Pupils will return to their normal lessons on Monday 3rd June for an important period of study.

During the final weeks of the Summer Term we will start the post-18 preparation process, which will be UCAS applications for the majority of pupils. I will write to you again to confirm the process for attendance of Open Days at universities, but would like to reiterate that pupils should not miss any school time for this purpose prior to the examinations.

We plan to release the examination results on an internal results day in early July. I will confirm the date and details in my next correspondence.

This can be a very stressful time for the pupils and for you as parents, so I wish you all the best in supporting each other.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact myself or Miss Weston at school.

Yours faithfully

Richard Langton
Headmaster

Mr R Matley
Head of Sixth Form
