

Privacy Policy for Queen Mary's Club

This Privacy Policy sets out how Queen Mary's Club will collect and process the personal data that you may provide to us or that we may collect from you when you visit our website. QMC is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected and will only process personal data in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

This document sets out what personal data we will hold about our members, why we process that data, who we share this information with, and the rights of individuals in relation to their personal data processed by us.

The information we collect

We collect and process data for the purpose of membership of Queen Mary's Club, including and not limited to:

- Identity information, including name, date of birth
- Contact information including e-mail address, postal address and telephone number
- Career and qualification information
- Gift information, if relevant
- Record of attendance at events

Legal grounds for processing your information

We will rely on the following legal bases under GDPR to process your personal data:

1. Consent
2. Legitimate interest

How we collect your information

Voluntary Information

Your information is collected, with your consent, when you leave Queen Mary's Grammar School: for those who have already left, you may be asked to complete a contact form via the website or by post, or we may correspond with you via the telephone, or by e-mail, or we may meet you in person.

Involuntary Information

If you wish to order QM memorabilia from our online shop, you will have to provide your email address and this may be added to our database for future contact.

Use of your Personal Data

Your personal data is collected for the sole use of Queen Mary's Club and will not be sold to or shared with any other body.

We use the information we collect to enable us to keep in contact with former pupils of Queen Mary's Grammar School. This enables us to invite you to events such as the Annual Dinner; provide information about other ex-pupils in Newsletters and our From All Quarters annual publication; and ask for help/donations for the support of current pupils at the School.

If you have any complaints about our use of your personal information, please do not hesitate to contact us. You are, of course, at liberty to remove your information from our database at any time.
